This multi-farmer mirolot from ASORCAFE showcases the excellent growing conditions of the Macizo Colombiano (Colombian Plateau) where high altitude, rich volcanic soil and very stable climate all year round contributes to the complexity of the coffee.

CAUCA, COLOMBIA.

ASORCAFE is a producer association representing coffee producers of Inzá in the mountainous Cauca region of Colombia. ASORCAFE provides education, training and support to the small producers, connecting them with international specialty coffee buyers who are seeking quality and traceability. Over 400 members strong, the association provides a way for producers to receive higher prices and recognition for the efforts making specialty coffee production more sustainable in Colombia.
