Producer Luiz Roberto Saldanha Rodrigues from Fazenda California in Brazil undertakes extensive trials with coffee fermentation to improve cup quality and bring out unique characteristics in the cup. The double fermentation process used in the Brazil component of Mastermind contributes the rich body and silky mouth-feel in this seasonal revision of Mastermind.

SMALL PRODUCERS OF BRUSELAS, COLOMBIA

There are many micro-climates in the Huila region due to the interaction of the mountain ranges, the Pacific, the Amazon and major rivers. The micro-climate in Bruselas contributes to the unique, vibrant and complex character of this coffee. There are 16 producers with farms between 1 and 5 hectares contributing to this lot.
